

2023 Community Meals Subsidy Application

Form Preview

Introduction

* indicates a required field

The Community Meals Subsidy Program aims to:

- Strengthen the community's capacity to address loneliness and social isolation and support access to affordable meals, recreation, activities and other community services for older people.
- Encourage older people to participate in activities that improve their health, wellbeing, social connections and celebrate cultural diversity.
- Encourage opportunities for community volunteers to develop skills, self-confidence, and sense of community.
- Partner with community organisations and groups offering a range of services and activities for older people.
- Encourage community organisations to welcome new participants by encouraging inclusive practices and policies that foster a safe and welcoming environment.
- Contribute to food security for everyone, especially the most vulnerable and enable older people to enjoy a community meal in the company of friends.

A meal subsidy of $5.00 per person for up to 175 people over the age of 55 is available to eligible not-for-profit community organisations and groups meeting in the City of Melbourne. The subsidy is for a maximum number of 12 meal sessions to be held between January and December 2023.

The Council is committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014. The information collected is securely stored in smartygants and City of Melbourne computers. Any personal information collected by Council will be used for the purpose of assessing applications and requests for meals under the Community Meals Subsidy Program, to confirm the suburb where your members reside and any other directly related purpose. Organisations not wishing to provide the names and addresses of members may still participate in the program provided they submit a list of members' residential postcodes. This information will not be disclosed to any other external party without your consent, unless required or authorised by law. If you choose to provide the names and addresses of members to Council, please ensure that your members are aware that you are doing so.

The applicant contact information you have provided for the organisation in your application will be used by us to assess your application to provide information relevant to your membership in the Program, to promote a range of activities and to make referrals for new participants to your program. If you do not want us to use the contact information you provide in this way, please let us know and we will not provide these details to any external party (unless required or authorised by law). By submitting an application you consent to Council publishing the successful applicant's organisation name, and amount funded on our website. You can view the City of Melbourne Information Privacy Policy on our website.
